

Plaintiff filed her complaint on the Court's form Complaint for Judicial Review of Decision of the Commissioner of Social Security. However, from what can be gathered from the complaint and plaintiff's financial affidavit, it appears perhaps that plaintiff has already been adjudicated to be disabled and is receiving disability benefits. Alternatively, plaintiff may be receiving regular social security benefits. The complaint is unclear. But it does not appear that plaintiff is attempting to file for judicial review of an adverse decision by the Social Security Administration (the “Administration”). Plaintiff appears to be complaining about the manner in which the Administration is administering her benefits. However, the nature of plaintiff’s claims are unclear.

The Court will direct plaintiff to file an amended complaint on the Court’s Civil Complaint form. Plaintiff is directed to complete the form to the best of her ability. And plaintiff is warned that the complaint must comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which, among other things, require her to state the basis for this Court’s jurisdiction and to assert a factual basis for her claim for relief. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 8; Fed. R. Civ. P. 10.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff’s motion to proceed in forma pauperis [Doc. 2] is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall mail to plaintiff a copy of the Court’s Civil Complaint form.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff shall file an amended complaint in accordance with the terms of this order no later than October 3, 2011.

Dated this 16th day of September, 2011.
